EIGHT DAYS OF HOPE RESPONDS TO SELMA, AL, AFTER EF-1 TORNADO SWEEP THROUGH THE SOUTH

Tupelo, MS – Eight Days of Hope (EDOH) will deploy its Rapid Response team to Selma, AL, to provide resources and help to those in need following the devastating EF-1 tornado that hit on January 12.

“We have brothers and sisters in Alabama that are in great need after this week,” shared Steve Tybor, President and CEO of EDOH, “Many have limited resources, some have lost family members, and some have lost their homes. Our team is ready to support and serve in whatever capacity that we can. Love in action!”

Beginning January 18, EDOH will be in Selma providing heavy equipment, chainsaws, laundry trailers, and hands and feet to assist local residents with cleanup.

The group will be partnering with Valley Grande Baptist Church, located just outside the city of Selma. Volunteers 18+ are welcome to serve between January 18 and February 4. Food and lodging will be provided. For more information about the current response efforts of Eight Days of Hope or to sign up to serve, please visit www.eightdaysofhope.com.
