EIGHT DAYS OF HOPE ANNOUNCES EXPANSION OF SENIOR LEADERSHIP TEAM

Tupelo, MS – Eight Days of Hope (EDOH) has announced the expansion of its senior leadership team, naming Chandler Gurley and Zachary Tybor, as Vice Presidents.

Chandler Gurley has been on staff with EDOH since 2017. She has served as Executive Assistant to the President and as Director of Operations. In her new title, Chandler will continue to oversee operations while aiding in developing the strategy and vision for the continued growth of the ministry.

“It has been a joy and an honor to serve with Eight Days of Hope for the last seven years. I have been able to see God use this organization to bring hope to the hopeless countless times,” says Chandler, “I am grateful to continue serving and leading as Vice President of this wonderful ministry.”

“EDOH has seen tremendous growth over the last three years,” shares Founder and President Steve Tybor III, “As Chandler has served over the last seven years, she has proved to have the integrity, character, and leadership qualities that we are looking for to support that expansion.”

Zachary has been involved with EDOH since its beginning. He is an experienced volunteer, leader, and now a full-time staff member. His role will focus on partner and donor relationships, and he too will contribute towards the strategy and vision to support the growth of EDOH.

“Zachary has been a part of Eight Days of Hope since day one back in 2005,” shares Founder and President Steve Tybor III, “He has seen not only the thousands of families we’ve served but also witnessed the blessings that have been poured over this ministry over the last 19 years. Zachary's relationship skills and passion for the brokenhearted will be a huge asset to the ministry."

"Me and my family are excited to step into the next chapter laid in front of us," shares Zachary Tybor, "We are ready to serve with Eight Days of Hope in spreading the Gospel to those who are hurting and broken-hearted."

As the ministry is growing, EDOH strives to continue loving and serving in excellence. The organization is looking forward to the future and all God has in store in the years to come.
