EIGHT DAYS OF HOPE SENDS MASS FEEDING MINISTRY TO HUNT, TX

Tupelo, MS – Eight Days of Hope (EDOH) is deploying its Mass Feeding Ministry to Hunt, TX, in the aftermath of the catastrophic July 4th flash flooding.

We will serve breakfast, lunch, and dinner, starting on Sunday, July 20, until Saturday, August 2. We invite those in the community, first responders, and other volunteers to join us for a warm meal at the Hunt Store, located at 1634 TX-39, Hunt, TX 78024.

"As the aftermath of this disaster continues to unfold, we are humbled to find additional ways to serve the community. Our hope is that our Mass Feeding Ministry can bless the families recovering, the first responders, and all those helping along the Guadalupe River," shared Zach Tybor, EDOH Vice President.

As this community continues to recover and complete search and recovery, our hope to meet whatever needs arise. We plan to send additional resources in the coming weeks as necessary.
