EIGHT DAYS OF HOPE DEPLOYS RAPID RESPONSE HEAVY TEAM TO UNION CITY, MI, FOLLOWING EF-3 TORNADO

Tupelo, MS – Eight Days of Hope (EDOH) deploys Rapid Response Heavy team to Union City, MI, following devastating EF-3 tornado on March 6, 2026.

This will be a heavy deployment of the Rapid Response arm. A small team of EDOH volunteers who are trained in all areas will be serving the most essential needs on the ground. This team can move quickly because of the limited number.

"We are humbled to be able to love and serve those in Union City. This community has lost so much, but we are on the way to bring hope and help in their time of need. What an honor," shares Chandler Gurley, EDOH Vice President of Operations.

From March 11 to 18, the Rapid Response Heavy team will sort through debris, remove dangerous trees, tarp roofs, and more. Volunteering for this outreach is not available at this time. To learn more about EDOH's response, please visit www.eightdaysofhope.com.
