EIGHT DAYS OF HOPE DEPLOYS TO SALINA, KS, FOLLOWING SEVERE WINDSTORM

Tupelo, MS– Eight Days of Hope (EDOH) is deploying their Mass Feeding and Rapid Response Heavy teams to Salina, KS, following the destructive storm on the evening of June 8.

“Thousands of families are currently without electricity and have severe damage from the 100+ mph winds in Salina,” Chandler Gurley, EDOH VP of Operations shared, “our team is on the way to deliver hope through free, hot meals and assist with whatever is needed to serve this wonderful community. We are humbled to be used by God in this way!”

More details to come about a feeding location and times they will be serving. Volunteering is not currently available. To learn more, visit eightdaysofhope.com.

###

ABOUT EIGHT DAYS OF HOPE: Eight Days of Hope (EDOH) exists to love and serve those in need who have been impacted by natural and human disasters. Our Rebuilding, Rapid Response, and Mass Feeding Ministries offer support in the aftermath of natural disasters through immediate disaster response, rebuilding homes, and providing meals. Our Safe House Ministry builds places of refuge and restoration for survivors of human trafficking. We serve all people regardless of race, gender, religion or ethnicity. Please visit
